Flower Show Big Success In Spite of the Bad Weather

REMARKABLY FINE LOT OF BLOOMS EXHIBITED AT ELM HALL
LAST SATURDAY—PEONIES ESPECIALLY LARGE AND BEAUTIFUL.

Overcoming all kinds of obstacles, Narberth's Annual Spring Flower Show was held last Saturday afternoon and evening in Elm Hall. And what's more, the Show achieved a remarkable success.

A decidedly backward season made impossible the exhibiting of many varieties, particularly in roses, and kept many regular exhibitors out of the Show. Then, as though not satisfied with what she had already done, Mother Nature "let loose" 30 hours of almost continuous rain, starting Friday afternoon and ending Saturday evening.

But despite all these handicaps, the Show was highly gratifying. The exhibits of peonies were as fine as have ever been seen in a local show; in fact, there were some blooms that probably exceeded in size and beauty any heretofore shown. This was especially true of the collection of white peonies exhibited by William C. Claghorn, which won first prize in this class. The exhibit of mixed peonies shown by Joseph F. Simpson, which won the bronze medal offered by the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, in Class 35, and Mrs. Fletcher W. Stites' exhibit, which won second place in the same class, were unusually fine.

In other years there have been a greater quantity of peonies exhibited, on account of more favorable weather conditions, but never have the peony classes shown the skill of our local growers to a better advantage.

Another exhibit deserving of special mention was the collection of iris entered by Mrs. F. W. Stites, which won first prize in Class 43.

The silver and bronze medals offered by the Pennsylvania Society as first and second prizes in the special class for the best collection of roses, judged for quality and varieties, were won by William J. Jones and Miss Miriam E. Ward, respectively.

Special mention should also be made of the children's exhibits in the four children's classes. There would have been many more entries in these classes—especially the two for wild flowers, if the rain had not interfered with the children getting out into the fields and woods both on Friday and again on Saturday. All the more credit, therefore, is due to those boys and girls who did exhibit in these classes, and especially to those who won the $5.00 gold pieces and the Thrift Stamps, for their exhibits were exceptionally good.

The judges were J. Otto Thilo, of Henry Dreer & Sons, and Fred J. Michel, Jr., of the Henry F. Michel Company. S. Mendelson Meehan, of Thomas Meehan & Sons, who was to have been the third judge, was prevented from reaching Narberth by a breakdown on his motor car.

The Civic Association takes this occasion to publicly thank the following, whose generous contributions and co-operation made possible the success of the Show:

A. C. Shand, F. W. Stites and James Artman for $5.00 gold pieces for the children's prizes.

W. D. Smadley, A. C. Shand, Jr., Samuel T. Atherholt, Charles L. Jenkins and the Baptist Church for constructing and lending tables.

John Albrecht for the entire floral decorations of the hall and a donation of plants for sale at the Plant Exchange.

A. E. Wohler for contribution of iris plants for sale at the Plant Exchange.

The Primrose Shop, at Ardmore, for donation of plants for sale at the Exchange.

And last, but by no means least, the generous co-operation of Principal Melchior, the teachers, and especially the boys and girls of the Narberth School, in giving publicity to the Show and in selling tickets.

Summary of Awards.

[Note—It was impossible to make decisions and award prizes in all the classes because the backward season prevented the sufficient development of many of the varieties to permit of their being entered.]

It is required that the Postmaster report to the Department ON JUNE 15TH that at least 85% of the patrons have complied with the request. Should we fail to make a satisfactory report the establishment of the service would be postponed to some future date. A rule of the Department states that under no circumstances will mail be delivered to a patron who fails to provide a receptacle.

When you have complied with this request tell us at the window or drop a note in the letter drop. No postage required.

Lawn Fete One Week From Today

On June 19th, afternoon and evening, the Woman's Community Club hold their Lawn Fete and Strawberry Festival. It will be on the lot at the corner of Elmwood avenue and Essex avenue, known as the old stand of Caldwell's Real Estate Office. You know that is right at the station. Stop on your way home from the train any time after one o'clock. Tennis champions, come to the fete before you start the afternoon games. Housekeepers, come early to buy a cake for your Sunday dinner. Parents, treat your kiddies to ice cream cones next Saturday afternoon. Come one, come all. Something for every one, young and old.

There will be fancy articles, very useful; dresses for children and infants; candy bouquets, quite novel; delicious strawberries and ice cream; home-made cakes and goodies; home-made bread and rolls; home-made candy; fresh peanuts; ice cream cones. Lemonade, made just as good as it was at the bazaar. Oh, ever, ever so many things that are good to eat while you are there or to carry home to someone who could not come.

Then just for a good time, straw rides for big folks or little children; a wonder fortune teller, be sure to have your palm read—you will be surprised to learn what is within your reach; and not least of all, the silhouette man, he will show you in a jiffy how good looking you may be.

So do not miss this day for a good time. Bring your pocketbook, bring your friends, bring a smile and everybody will be happy. All the afternoon and all the evening of Saturday, June 19th.

Articles still to be drawn and which will be completed on June 19th are: Wedgewood flower vase; silk powder puff case, glass lined; silk bag, large; 50 feet garden hose, 3/4-inch; silk rag rug; gray porch tray; picture Cupid; large American flag; toaster, electric; Public Ledger; velvet portieres.

Picnic and a Rainy Day

Last Saturday—remember it—oh, yes, it rained and then rained some more, but what's a little thing like rain when a big, jolly picnic has been arranged for and several hundred kiddies and folks have their minds and hearts set on having a picnic? It may have looked hopeless to some of the mothers last Saturday morning, but Mr. Haws had a splendid idea of where to hold a rainy day picnic and Mr. C. P. Cook very generously offered the use of his big barn. After that it was easy—telephones worked overtime for a while and a number of automobiles were kindly offered and a hopeless aspect was transformed into a cheerful and novel day's fun, and the Narberth Presbyterian Sunday School picnic had an attendance of 225.

It was more than a picnic; it was a visit down on the farm to most of the kiddies—the big barn with a large threshing floor in the center, two large hay mows on each side and just enough hay and straw to make it lots of fun to climb around in and play. One kiddie discovered a chute to slide hay down and he took a slide himself, and soon had a bunch more enjoying the same fun. It was good sport climbing up and down the ladders to the mows and nobody even thought about it raining outdoors. There were horses to look at, cows, and even goats. Then someone discovered a nest of kittens, and you can imagine the fuss that was made over them.

It was a different sort of picnic in many ways—no one needed to bring a basket of lunch—the good friends of the Sunday School furnished an abundance of ham, bread, butter, bananas, ice cream and coffee, while each class furnished one article of food in sufficient quantity for all, and this added hard-boiled eggs, potato salad, pickles, pies and cakes to the picnic menu. This abundant spread was served in a large room in the front of the barn, a store room, which made a handy dining room. To add to the lighting facilities and effect, candles and lanterns were hung around, and with the chairs that were pressed into service from the church it was quite comfortable.

The Ladies' Auxiliary donated two bushels of peanuts, and the way those peanuts disappeared it was apparent that Darwin knew what he was talking about.

Many of the children expressed them-

SCHOOL NOTES

"Without halting, without rest,
Lifting better up to best."

Our "reporter" of the Senior Trip apologizes for the oversight in the vote of thanks to Mr. Durbin for his kindness in giving his car and his efficient services as chaperone.

Operetta, "Yokohama Maid."

The people who dared to brave the storms of last Saturday evening to reach the High School were repaid for their effort long before the "Yokohama Maid" was happily married off. At the first opening of the curtains all rain was forgotten and everyone was in far-away Japan, the land of cherry blossoms and wistaria. There the fortune and misfortune of "O-Sing-a-Song" were followed with great interest. Florentina Mueller as this maid from old Japan made a charming little Japanese lady. The old Mayor who wishes to marry her, Fattedo, with his sentimental ways and amusing speeches, was well portrayed by John Hillegas. Rose Ricklin did some very clever acting in the part of the old nurse, who, unfortunately, was not blessed with good looks. Other solo parts were well taken by Donald Faile, Marie Miesen, Lawrence Houston, Ruth Durborow, John Dickie, Gus Erdman and Walton Foote. The chorus added greatly to the picturesque of the setting and their singing showed the finished result of careful training, as did the work of the High School orchestra and Miss Frances Keim, the accompanist.

Besides the successful showing of individual voices, splendid co-operation was shown between the students and the different departments of the school. Miss Yerkes gave valuable assistance in arranging the stage setting. The operetta was under the supervision of Miss I. June Cross, who deserves great credit for its splendid success.

Between the acts the audience enjoyed a solo by Miss Doris von Culin and a pretty drill by the Fourth Grade girls, under the direction of Miss Clayton.

President McCarter
Celebrates

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY AS A NARBERTH SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Somebody said, "School Directors may come and School Directors may go, but McCarter goes on forever." That hit the nail on the head, and it's well that it should be so. Just twenty-five years ago, June 10th, C. Howard McCarter was elected a Director of our local Board, since which time he has acted as treasurer and in other capacities. Several years ago, further back than most of us can remember, he was elected president of the Board. For the sake of Narberth's rising generation, present and future, it is to be hoped that he will continue in the office for many years to come. Narberth should take pride in Mr. McCarter's record, which has been one long series of self-sacrificing and most efficient services in the interest of our school children. Narberth owes him a heavy debt of gratitude for his capable and earnest administration of the affairs of its educational institution and should be proud of the fact that the State Directors' Association, recognizing his worth, has elected him its president, thus confirming the estimate in which he is held by the voters of Narberth.

Election in Lower
Merion is Quietest in Years, 1,000 Voted

PENROSE FOLLOWERS SHOWED GREATEST STRENGTH IN VOTING—THE INTEREST SLIGHT.

In one of the quietest elections in years only a few more than 900 Republicans of Lower Merion and Narberth voted recently in the primary election in which delegates to the Republican National Convention were chosen. The number of Democrats voting was negligible.

Of the more important candidates, the banner vote of 908 went to Charles A. Snyder, unopposed for State Treasurer. Burke, McLaughlin, Garland and Walters carried the township for Congressmen-at-Large; Biddle, Kendrick and McGrath ran lowest for Delegates-at-Large.

Congressman Watson and Representative Harold Pike were renominated without opposition.

Numerous voters voted their preference for President of the United States, but the choice was scattering. Edward R. Wood, the perennial candidate for President, received a good many votes, as his name was the only one printed on the ballot. Names of General Leonard Wood, Herbert Hoover, William G. McAdoo, Hiram Johnson and other leaders of both parties were written in on Democratic and Republican ballots alike.

Some difficulty was experienced in polling places because elected election officers were unwilling to serve on account of the compensation, which for these times is becoming too small—a matter of $5 a day. In the West Bryn Mawr district an inspector "went on strike," and in several other districts officials just failed to appear.

For Supreme Court Judge, George Kunkel received 504 votes; Sylvester B. Sadler getting 473. William B. Linn, the only candidate for Superior Court Judge, got 862. U. S. Senator Boies Penrose got 820. The vote for Charles A. Snyder for State Treasurer was 908, and that for S. S. Lewis for Auditor General was 894.

In the voting for Congressmen-at-Large the results were as follows: Burke, 678; Crago, 411; Garland, 702; McLaughlin, 660; Sheatz, 403; Walters, 599.

The voting for Delegates-at-Large was: Atterbury, 849; Babcock, 688; Biddle, 519; Chandler, 772; Elverson, 795; Kendrick, 538; Knox, 827; McGrath, 348; Mellon, 664; Miner, 685; Moore, 817; Penrose, 736; Replogle, 584; Schaffer, 705; Sproul, 717.

Alderfer, for delegate from the Eighth district, received 873; Grundy, 663; Row, 304. The vote for alternates, Johnson, 884, and Moyer, 863. For Congress, Henry W. Watson received 880 and H. C. Pike, for Assemblyman, got 877. For State Committeeman, Bosler got 888 and Styer, 914.

County Committeemen elected were I. Warner Arthur, Rosemont; M. E. Reynolds, West Bryn Mawr; George Gane, East Bryn Mawr; E. N. Cresman, Haverford; Walter Blair, West Ardmore; H. W. Smedley, North Ardmore; H. H. Francis, South Ardmore; W. A. L. Barker, Gladwyne; A. Stretch, General Wayne; W. J. Conlen, Merion; J. W. Grow, Pencoyd; J. J. Skelton, Cynwyd; G. C. Klauder, Bala, and C. V. Neel, Narberth.

Lawn Fete

SATURDAY, JUNE 19, AFTERNOON AND EVENING, UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB.

The grounds at the corner of Elmwood and Essex avenues (by the station) are loaned to the Club by Mr. Caldwell for the fete. The purpose of the fete is to dispose of a variety of useful and fancy articles left from the recent bazaar. Of course there will be a booth for ice cream and strawberries, cones and lemonade, under the able supervision of Mrs. Edgar Taylor. Home-made cakes will be as good as ever.

The Juniors, under the direction of Mrs. Foote, will make and sell lovely candy bouquets. An artist will cut silhouettes for those who wish to know just how they look to other folks.

If arrangements can be made, there will be straw rides to amuse the children and fortune telling to entertain the grown-ups.

We hope every body and his grandmother will come to the fete and enjoy it.

Readers of Our Town, we believe, after digesting the object of the Narberth Civic Association as printed above, will want to be a member of the association. Sustaining membership, $5.00 yearly; voting membership, $1.00 yearly; payable to Miss M. J. Simpson, treasurer, P. O. Box 118, or to R. J. Edgar, secretary, P. O. Box 601. Membership cards will be mailed immediately on receipt of remittance. Subscriptions to Our Town at $1.50 yearly received by Miss M. J. Simpson, cashier, P. O. Box 118.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and business or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
